Tonight we'll play bingo, make a craft and watch the movie Beverly Hills Chihuahua. This is a kids only event for children potty trained through age 11. The cost is $14 per child, Please RSVP by Thursday, March 12th.

Nature Watch Workshop: All About Hummingbirds & Bluebird Monitoring

Saturday, March 28th
10:00am

The hummingbirds will be returning soon, come get ready with us! Gregg from Wild Birds Unlimited will be present to tell us just how we should prepare and what we can do to keep these lovely creatures buzzing around our community all season long! Today, will also be the kick off for Bluebird monitoring. If you are interested in becoming a Bluebird monitor, or would like to return for the '09 season please attend this workshop. At this time we will coordinate the monitoring schedule, as well as address any questions and changes for this season. After the workshop we'll head out to do our first round of monitoring; anyone interested in seeing what Bluebird monitoring is all about it welcome to join us! During the workshop we'll have a craft to keep the kids busy, so feel free to bring them along. Please RSVP by Friday, March 27th, if you are able to attend.

EARTH HOUR

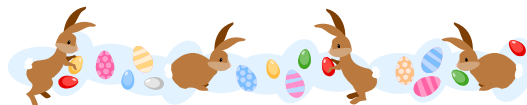

Saturday, March 28th
8:30pm

On March 28, 2009 at 8:30 p.m., local time, World Wildlife Fund is asking individuals, businesses, governments and organizations around the world to turn off their lights for one hour -- Earth Hour -- to make a global statement of concern about climate change and to demonstrate their commitment to finding solutions.

The Residents' Club will be participating in this historic event, and you can too... simply turn out your non-essential lights! Show your commitment today, and join others by registering online at www.earthhourus.org.
